Secret Police In Russia Gain More Prestige

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two changes in the Soviet hierarchy appear to confirm the belief in Washington that the Soviet secret police organization is gaining importance after some years of relative obscurity.

Alexander N. Shelepin, former head of the Committee of State Security — KGB — as the secret police is formally called, became a member of the Communist party's Presidium on Monday and Vladimir E. Semichastny, the present KGB boss, was promoted a full member of the party's Central Committee.

These two changes are in addition to other indications of the KGB's growing stature. The signs have been carefully analyzed by the administration's Soviet specialists.

But the specialists cautioned that their significance should not be exaggerated. Moreover, they say, there is no indication that the KGB played any role in the ouster of Premier Khrushchev.

Some cautious glorification of the secret police started about six months ago, well before the change in the Kremlin.

The role of the secret police, omnipotent during the Stalin years, was drastically downgraded after the execution of its chief, Lavrenti P. Beria, in 1953. The appointment of Shelepin, an outsider and a former leader of the Komsomol, the party's youth organization, to head the KGB in 1958 represented a downgrading of the dreaded strong arm of the party.

But Washington experts discovered signs of a slight change since last summer, with occasional newspaper articles praising the "vigilance of the KGB" and its role in fighting "imperialist agents."

Such articles were printed in connection with the Khabarovsk incident last October, when the Soviets raided the hotel rooms of one British and three American military attaches in the Siberian city and then charged that they were spying.

Britain Launches Horror Campaign On Drunk Driver

LONDON (AP) — The Transport Ministry launched a horror campaign today to keep Christmas drunks from behind the wheel.

The ministry will spend $1.4 million on posters and television commercials.

One poster shows a boy crushed beneath the wheel of a mashed auto. Another shows a girl sprawled beside a battered car.

Television spots show cheerful pub scenes punctuated with screams of tires and closeup pictures of mutilated crash victims.

Castro's Spies Infiltrating US?

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — A creepy feeling of Fidel Castro spies infiltrating the United States is growing in the Cuban exile colony. U.S. authorities say the situation is under control.

The head of an anti-Castro organization with an intelligence department of its own estimates more than 1 per cent of the Cuban refugees in this country are Communists. About 200,000 Cubans have come since Castro's 1959 takeover.

Another exile leader, whose office claims wide access to exile and Cuban underground information, estimated the number of Castro agents at 5,000, including Cubans and Americans.

An official of the State Department's Cuban affairs office here described such claims as without substantiation.

Miami district immigration director Robert Woytch said his men screen out spies by "one of the most efficient techniques yet devised."

"Our record is so tremendous that no cases have been brought to light," he said.

The Cuban who issued the estimate of 5,000 agents said: "Many have lived in the United States since before Castro, and are American citizens. They can cross back and forth into Mexico freely. The Cuban Embassy in Mexico is the hub of the spy network."

The exile produced a list of alleged Castro agents or "very suspicious persons."

He said his investigation showed that: "One is assigned to watch every important anti-Castro group here. Some are assigned to scan American newspapers. Some are assigned to be troublemakers."

"Castro knew about the Bay of Pigs invasion. Since then, his espionage network has grown in experience and numbers."

Dailies Strike Under Pressure

DETROIT (AP) — The President of the United States has been asked to help end Detroit's long newspaper strike, and the president of the Teamsters Union says he thinks the strike should be ended.

The strike against the morning Detroit Free Press and the afternoon Detroit News began July 13.

Detroit Edison Co. Board Chairman Walker Cisler Wednesday urged President Johnson — in a letter — to "exert every endeavor and every persuasion within your office to bring this distressing and unnecessary situation to an immediate and satisfactory conclusion."

Teamster President James R. Hoffa said "the strike should be ended and the union (Pressmen's Local 13) should realistically recognize that they should compromise and submit the remaining issues to arbitration." Hoffa made his remark Wednesday in a telephone interview with Ven Marshall, radio and television newsman (for WWJ, Detroit).

Federal and state mediators have said the striking pressmen and the Detroit Newspaper Publishers Association, which negotiates a joint contract for both papers, are deadlocked over the issue of how many men should man new eight-unit presses. The union insists 16 men should be the minimum.

The publishers are willing to settle for 15, although they contend surveys have shown only 11 or 12 men are needed.

Driver Killed By Holdup Man On Detroit Bus

DETROIT (AP) — A bus driver was fatally wounded Wednesday night in an attempted holdup by a lone gunman at a bus layover stop in northwest Detroit.

Police said Lucian Fryling, 40, died at Ford Hospital after receiving a bullet wound in the lower abdomen.

Officers said there were several bullet holes in the roof of the Detroit Street Railways bus, indicating the bandit had fired several times during a struggle with Fryling.

The gunman entered the bus while it was waiting at a layover stop, police said.

The wounded Fryling apparently drove the bus a short distance before it ran off the road and crashed into an apartment building, officers said. No one in the building was injured.

Price Cut $10 On Newsprint

VANCOUVER, B.C. (AP) — British Columbia's largest newsprint producer cut prices $10 a ton Wednesday for North American customers. Two competitors immediately began considering whether to match it.

In the past when one of the province's three newsprint makers had dropped prices the others have followed suit.

Mac Millan, Bloedel and Powell River Ltd., reduced its basic price from $134 to $124 a ton.

A company statement said the action was to help North American newspapers in their fight against rising costs and "intense competition from such media as television and radio."

The company said it hoped to "forestall a long-term erosion of this traditionally important market for its products."

This was the first substantial change in newsprint prices in seven years.

A publishing industry spokesman estimated most daily newspapers spend from 25 to 33 1/3 per cent of their operating budgets on newsprint.

He estimated the $10 a ton reduction would mean an overall saving of between 2 and 3 per cent in yearly operations and "this would make a very substantial difference in some marginal newspapers — perhaps between publishing and not publishing."

Another 1,200 Sent By U.S. To South Viet Nam

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States sent another 1,200 military men into South Viet Nam this month, officials disclosed today. More American air transport units also have been thrown into the struggle.

The disclosures came less than 24 hours after it was announced that Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor will fly back to Washington to open sweeping review of the South Vietnamese situation with President Johnson and his top military and diplomatic advisers on Nov. 27.

The additional manpower brings U.S. military strength in the troubled area to about 21,200 — up 5,000 since midsummer, sources said.

Some of the reinforcements have been assigned to the U.S. Special Forces, an elite unit specially trained for guerrilla warfare.

Other U.S. forces have been assigned to beef up the teams of American advisers who are working in the field with South Vietnamese troops.

The additional airpower includes a squadron of U.S. Air Force C123 transport planes and a group of Army CU2 cargo carriers.

The airpower is designed to increase the mobility and flexibility of Vietnamese troops in responding more quickly to guerrilla raids.

Officials said the increases in American manpower and airpower committed to the Viet Nam war were the result of decisions taken earlier and did not represent any new strategy.

Mackie To Help Highway Bosses

LANSING (AP) — State Highway Commissioner John Mackie, saying he will meet Monday with the new State Highway Commission that will take over his powers, pledged his "full cooperation" with the group Wednesday.

"I will brief the new commission on our past, present and future programs and cooperate fully with them to insure uninterrupted progress of our highway programs," Mackie said.

The four-man bipartisan commission was appointed by Gov. George Romney last week, as provided for in the new State Constitution.

The commission will designate a highway director to succeed Mackie, the nation's last elected highway commissioner. Mackie made a successful run for Congress from the new seventh district in the Nov. 3 general election. He will have to resign from his present post before the first of the year to assume his new duties.

Ardale Ferguson of Benton Harbor was named commission chairman by the governor. Other commission members are Wallace Nunn of East Tawas, Charles Hewitt of Grosse Pointe Farms and Richard Veen of Grand Rapids.

Writing in the Communist party paper Pravda, he said also that "the problem of destroying enemy rockets was successfully solved." The claim has been made before.

Dust Still Flies In New England

CHICAGO (AP) — New England remained dust dry today in the clutches of its worst drought, while the Southwest dug out from under heavy snow.

The Weather Bureau said however, that some rain or snow was expected in the southern New England area Friday.

Central and western Massachusetts and parts of southern New Hampshire have been hardest hit by the drought which began April 23.

The area where rainfall has been less than 50 per cent normal extends from Concord, N.H., to Pittsfield, Mass., to Hartford, Conn., to Haverhill, Mass.

King Liar; Warren Report Unfair, Says FBI Chief

WASHINGTON (AP) — FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover has blasted the Warren Commission as "unfair and unjust" and called Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. "the most notorious liar in the country."

Hoover boiled over on these and other matters, including lenient "bleeding heart judges," in a lengthy interview Wednesday with a group of women reporters.

He angrily charged the Warren Commission with a classic example of Monday morning quarterbacking" in discussing its report on the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

The commission, headed by Chief Justice Earl Warren, has said the FBI failed to notify the Secret Service that the assassin, Lee Harvey Oswald, was in Dallas last Nov. 22, the day Kennedy was slain.

Other U.S. forces have been assigned to beef up the teams of American advisers who are working in the field with South Vietnamese troops.

The additional airpower includes a squadron of U.S. Air Force C123 transport planes and a group of Army CU2 cargo carriers.

The airpower is designed to increase the mobility and flexibility of Vietnamese troops in responding more quickly to guerrilla raids.

Officials said the increases in American manpower and airpower committed to the Viet Nam war were the result of decisions taken earlier and did not represent any new strategy.

When he asked King to make an appointment so he could prove that four of the five men were born in the North, Hoover said, King would not make the appointment.

The FBI director went off the record for further comments about the minister.

Not In Tune

An aide to King said that he was vacationing in the Bahamas and would have nothing to say until today at the earliest.

But in Houston, Tex., Aaron Henry, a Mississippi NAACP member, told newsmen in an interview that FBI agents in Southern states generally are not in sympathy with civil rights.

"I'll go further than that," said Henry, a Clarksville druggist. "J. Edgar Hoover is not in tune with civil rights."

In discussing civil rights with the women reporters, Hoover described as a "scandalous thing to do" the suspension by a McCollum, Miss., judge of the

Military Bases In 33 States Will Be Closed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some 63,000 workers at 95 military bases, shipyards and other defense installations learn today that their jobs are to be lopped off eventually by the federal economy ax.

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara scheduled a midafternoon news conference at which he said he would name the bases in 33 states that are to be closed. A handful of bases overseas will be identified later. Word was to go more or less simultaneously to congressmen and the affected institutions.

Until then, McNamara proposed to keep the list secret. In announcing plans for the cutback Wednesday, he said it included facilities of all types — air bases, air depots, Army arsenals, Army terminals, shipyards, etc.

Too Many Shipyards

Major controversy has centered on the possibility some of the Navy's 11 shipyards would be closed.

McNamara said two years ago there was excess in the shipyards. Since then he has visited most of the shipyards in trying to decide which could be cut back.

McNamara presented his justifications for the closings at a preliminary news conference at which he made public a 32-page booklet showing how defense installations closed earlier have been put to what he called "productive civilian use."

Attached was a memorandum by President Johnson, which said:

"We expect to receive a dollar of value for every dollar we spend on defense."

"To do so has meant we must eliminate surplus, obsolete, unnecessary defense installations. This has and will continue to be done."

More Taxable Land

Support for McNamara's announcement came also from Vice President-elect Hubert H. Humphrey who returned to the United States Wednesday night from a two-week vacation in the Virgin Islands.

Questioned at Baltimore's Friendship Airport, he said: "I am sure the secretary is only doing what he feels is necessary — getting the most out of every dollar spent for defense. I believe Secretary McNamara has done the best job of any defense secretary in my memory."

Two Hunters Are Fined On Charge Of Shining Deer

Two hunters who pleaded guilty to charges of attempting to hunt deer with an artificial light in Wells Township Sunday night were fined $50 and $7.80 court costs each by Municipal Judge James Fitzgerald Wednesday in municipal court.

Kenneth Beauchamp, 34, of Route 1, Escanaba, and Francis Beauchamp, 21, of Route 2, Bark River were arrested by Conservation officers Hugh J. Fisher and Albert Severinsen.

Curtis Dahn, 38, commercial fisherman of 1227 Lake Shore Drive, was fined $25 and $7.30 for taking whitefish in Lake Michigan in closed season on his plea of guilty in municipal court today. His nets were checked by a Conservation Department patrol boat Wednesday.

Role Of History Told To Society

The importance of historical knowledge and methods of historical research were described by Max Reidspurger of Bay de Noc Community College faculty to the Delta County Historical Society at a meeting in the Chamber of Commerce building Wednesday night.

Reidspurger is a Wayne County native, received degrees from Wabash (Ind.) College and the University of Michigan, and has studied in Germany. He teaches history and German at Bay College.

John J. Mitchell, Historical Society president, conducted the meeting and the speaker was introduced by Charles Follo, the Society's program chairman.

Past And Present

"Why study history?" is a question often asked of those with an interest in the subject, Reidspurger said. One of the answers, given by a student, is that "history is fun." This contrasts with the statement of a high school student, published in a national magazine, that "Today's youth is interested in the living present, not in the dead past."

"There can be no quarrel with the first half of this declaration, for certainly today's youth is interested in the living present," Reidspurger continued. "But the question must be asked whether we can understand this living present without understanding the precipitating factors from which problems of the present have arisen."

The speaker quoted Santayana: "He who does not know history, is fated to repeat it." And Cicero: "To be ignorant of what happened before you were born is to be ever a child."

Finding The Truth

The basic tools of historical research remain unchanged since the days of the first great historian, Thucydides, he continued. That is the use of the critical method upon a body

Quad Girls Born In Portland

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Quadruplet daughters were born within a seven-minute period Wednesday night to the 19-year-old wife of an apprentice construction lathe operator.

Mrs. Arlin D. Grenewalt and her daughters were in "sound health" shortly after the birth, said Dr. George Emery.

"The babies and their mother are doing fine. We are all very grateful," Dr. Emery said.

Diane Marie Grenewalt was taken into the delivery room of Portland Sanitarium at 6:15 p.m. and the first baby was born at 7:30. The last one was born at 7:37.

Dr. Remy Fulsher, head of obstetrics at the hospital, said the babies were placed in incubators and isolettes, and were not weighed immediately.

He said they appeared to be about three pounds each, with one smaller.

Grenewalt, 24, said neither he nor his wife have any family history of multiple births. They have been married nearly three years and have a son, Karl, 17 months.

Club Projects Gun Safety And Rifle Range

ENSIGN — Ensigners 4-H Club is offering a gun safety project for its membership this year. The project has proved popular with both boys and girls with an enrollment of 23. The project will be under the direction of Stanley Dominick, William Mauhar and Thomas Safford.

The membership will also be directed in the gun safety course offered by Michigan's Conservation Department instructed by Conservation Officer Safford.

The club will build a community rifle range. The Federal Forest Service, through the aid of Rapid River's Ranger Ray Chase, has granted permission to use federal land off the new Ensign-MacDonald Lake Road for the new rifle range site. When the range is completed anyone will be welcome to use the facilities.

Ensigner gun safety members are enrolled in the National Rifle Association.

'Genius Show' At Cub Meeting

RAPID RIVER—A "Genius Show" will be presented by Rapid River Cub Pack 488 Monday, Nov. 23, at 7 p.m. in the multi-purpose room of the Bay de Noc Elementary School.

Last month each cub scout was given a sack of identical materials. The cubs were to make an object using their initiative and imagination. The most unusual construction will receive a prize.

Cubmaster E. Stanley Pyke will present achievement awards to deserving cubs. Mrs. Pyke and Mrs. Bernard Wiles, den 2 will serve refreshments. All cub scout parents and friends are invited.

Father Patrick Frankard officiated. Burial was in Meyer Township Cemetery. Pallbearers were Percy Robertson, Ernest St. Julian, Edward Malone, Joseph Malone Jr. and John and Levio Malone.

On the serious side, a heart attack has claimed the life of another Michigan deer hunter.

He is Clifford Canfield, 61, of Topinabee, the 15th to be struck thus far in the deer season. He was found dead Wednesday in Presque Isle County.

In addition, six hunters have died of gunshot wounds and four in plane crashes.

King Liar, Says Hoover Of FBI

sentences of nine men convicted of bombing and burning a church. He said the men were not young, as claimed, but ranged in age from 30 to 44.

"Great progress" is being made, Hoover said, in solving the slaying of three civil rights workers near Philadelphia, Miss.

But, he said, police participate in crime in that area and also in several Midwestern cities, and that is one reason he opposes a national police force.

"If they (local police) could write to a central clearing house for information you can imagine what harm they would do," Hoover said.

Capital Streets Unsafe

Then he went on to criticize "pleading hear" judges and to discuss urban crime.

"You can't safely walk the streets of Washington, D.C., even in the daylight," Hoover said, citing as an example the mugging of the publisher of the Louisville Courier-Journal, Barry Bingham, and Mrs. Bingham in a Connecticut Avenue neighborhood.

As for New York City, Hoover said:

"Central Park — no one dares walk there even in the daytime and there are holdups on Fifth Avenue at 9:30 or 10 at night. There are pedestrians on the street and no one responds."

There were these other observations, too, in the interview, held at Hoover's invitation after the women reporters said they wished to talk with him en masse as they had with other government officials:

"The Secret Service is hopelessly ill-equipped and undermanned to do the job it is expected to do, but I have enough headaches of my own."

Klan Agitators Known

"All the lynchings and bombings of homes in the South" were the work of members of the Ku Klux Klan and the FBI knows "pretty well who they are."

"We are looking into the activities of the Minutemen. There is nothing more like the Ku Klux Klan and we have done a job on them."

On other matters:

"Hoover said the FBI has never investigated the John Birch Society and said 'I have no respect for the head of the society, Robert Welch.'

"Hoover said the FBI is watching the activities of the Black Muslims.

Director of the FBI since 1924, Hoover has been told by President Johnson his tenure will be extended "for as long as I am in the White House." The FBI chief is 69.

Lost Hunters Urged To Use Marble Rescue Plan

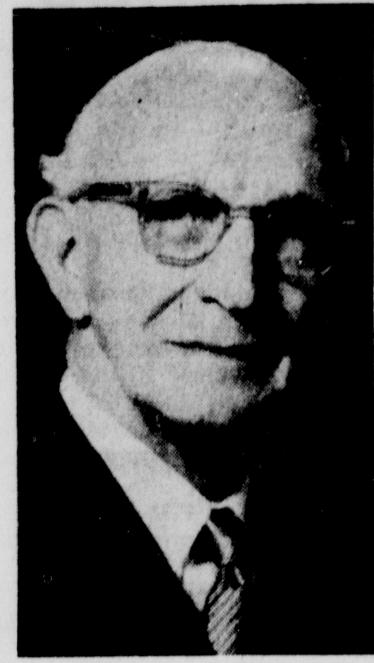

No Upper Peninsula deer hunting season would be complete without a call on the hunting horn from Will Marble of Gladstone to all lost deer hunters.

Will Marble is the U.P.'s "authority" — if we have one — on getting lost and also on how to avoid it.

He started his career when he was only 12 when he left his father, Webster Marble, on a fishing trip on the Days River and started to walk home. He got lost and was lost all day. It wasn't pleasant at all; there were a billion mosquitoes nibbling at him and he didn't know where the dickens Gladstone had got mislaid.

Worse than that, he only had one sandwich along and when he went to eat it and avoid a death by famine he found that the top had come off his can of fishing worms and that the dirt they were living in had come out in his pocket and spoiled his sandwich. He ate it anyway. What's a little sand when you're faced with famine? But it wasn't the best sandwich that he ever ate, even as a lifesaver.

When he finally wandered

and they will guide search parties to him. It's a simple remedy but it's a good one, like money for bills, says Will, and he's never known it to fail where it's been used.

It solves panic, darkness, freezing, idleness and eventually being alone; there's no patent or copyright on it and Will is glad to have any lost hunter use it.

He says that the number of lost persons who have died in the wilderness of the Upper Peninsula numbers into the hundreds since the first coming of white men, and that while the danger diminishes each year with the building of roads and other landmarks, there's still a chance for dangerous or even fatal exposure while lost.

The temptation of the greenie in the woods when he finds that his camp has strayed and that his compass "doesn't work" is to lay out in a hurry to get somewhere. Since he doesn't know how to get there this is a waste of energy and worsens his lot by exhausting him, besides probably losing him even more seriously.

"Build three fires and wait for daylight," says Will. He says there's no connection between his system and the historic "Three Fires" of Michigan. They were the Ottawas, the Chippewas and the Potowatamies. They got lost, too!

(Will says his system doesn't depend on success on use of a Marble waterproof matchbox, but that it helps.)

Three Men Fined On Conservation Law Violations

Fines totaling $75 and costs of $21.90 have been assessed to three men on conservation charges by Justice Ross Davis of Gladstone.

Duane M. Menard, 316 N. 21st St., was fined $25 and costs of $7.30 Wednesday after he entered a plea of guilty to a charge of possessing a loaded rifle in an automobile.

Menard was arrested near Round Lake at 9 p.m. Tuesday by conservation officers Charles Bowen and Larry St. Howard.

Brothers George Tyner of Chatham and Terry Tyner of Limestone each were assessed fines of $25 and costs of $7.30 after pleading guilty to charges of having an uncased gun in a car. They were arrested by State Police of the Gladstone Post at 12:05 a.m. Monday.

It consists of making three fires. Keeping them going keeps a lost person so busy that he can't feel sorry for himself, and they keep the lost man warm, (if not overheated),

Business And Flower Program For Woman's Club

An important business session and an enjoyable program on "Wild Flowers of the Upper Peninsula" by Mrs. Gene Cole of Marquette, were included in Wednesday afternoon's meeting of the Escanaba Woman's Club.

held at the Chamber of Commerce Building.

In opening the meeting, Mrs. O. W. Brookes, president, read the second article in the club's constitution, "The object of this Club shall be to promote through organized efforts the ethical, intellectual and social culture of its members and to further all measures for the betterment of the Community."

Luther Barrett, superintendent of Escanaba Area Public Schools, spoke on the millage for the school upkeep and expenses.

He compared the amount to the price of a new dress, then asked if the education of children was worth it.

The group recited the club's motto, "Collect and Mrs. Forrest Henslee gave a report on the district convention. The gerontology committee asked for inexpensive gifts for the residents at Delta Nursing Home.

Mrs. Cole was introduced by her sister, Mrs. Ralph Anderson, who was program chairman. She presented beautiful colored slides of wild flowers of Upper Michigan, with interesting and instructive commentary.

The hostess committee for the tea was Mrs. Wesley Hanson, chairman, with Mesdames Ed Olson, Ed Boissineau, John Manning Jr., Byron Zeni, George Bathke, John Peltin, A. J. Goula and Edward Hurley.

Voting Our Future

The Escanaba Area's biggest problem in December won't be about what to buy for Christmas.

It will be about the bill for the Escanaba Area Public Schools. They are asking approval of a 4.5 mills extra tax for 5 years to provide money to pay for school operation.

Since 80 per cent of the school budget goes to pay teachers and other school employees, most of the money is for pay. This indicates, too, the problem of making any cuts in spending without hurting the quality of schooling.

Voters of the school district overwhelmingly rejected a request for a 4 mill tax for operation in the general primary election Sept. 1. The schools have come back with a request in the special election Tuesday, Dec. 22 for a tax of 4.5 mills.

If this tax is voted it will finance the normal budget for school operation and it will provide the added half mill ($25,000 a year on the district's $50 million valuation) to reduce the $125,000 deficit in the school district treasury. The 5 year tax would clean up the deficit.

If the tax is again rejected there will still be time for one more election in late winter to seek voter approval of the millage before the school district must contract for teachers for the 1965-66 school year. The district would be in a bad position to hire teachers if it hadn't obtained public support for its school spending by that time.

It cannot continue long with deficit spending. There's the practical result that it will increase school costs with interest charges on top of the debt. And the school system will come apart under the uncertainties of financing and ability to meet minimum quality standards.

* * *

The Escanaba Area is going to get the kind of schools it wants. The voting on the millage will have a strong influence on the area's public schools not only for 1964-65, but for years to come.

No other single area of community quality could be more important than this one of education. It will influence the community's whole outlook and ability to grow and improve.

There's need for a reckoning with the community's conscience before Dec. 22.

It has been impossible up to now to convince the district's voters that this is a real need, not an artificial one; that it is imperative and not just desirable. The only alternative to final rejection of the millage is a poorer school program than that now offered here, and it has already been shorn of some valuable services.

Nation Of Immigrants

It seems certain now that the United States in the near future will have a new national park, one that will be unique in the world.

For the last 10 years, ever since the last American to be processed through it, Ellis Island has stood abandoned in New York Harbor, just beyond the Statue of Liberty. Shortly, says Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall, he will present a plan to President Johnson whereby the island and its buildings will be turned into a park, with gardens, promenades and an immigration museum.

The latter, suggested some time ago by the National Park Service and countless private citizens, is what will make the park unique.

The immigration movement to America (which still continues, of course) represented the greatest mass migration of people in human history.

In the 180 years between 1781 and 1961, more than 42 million men, women and children staked their lives and fortunes, what little fortunes they may have had, on this new experiment called America. At the peak, in the first decade of this century, nearly nine million came to these shores.

All of us trace back to immigrants.

The contribution of each of the scores of nationalities and ethnic groups to the country is incalculable. America today is not a homogeneous alloy, the product of the so-called "melting pot," but a fabric made of many interwoven cultural strands.

Udall's announcement coincides with the publication of John F. Kennedy's last book, "A Nation of Immigrants," on which he was working at the time of his death. Completed by his brother Robert, it makes a plea for the overhauling of the excessively restrictive immigration laws we have today.

Coins Scarce

The next time anyone offers you "a penny for your thoughts," take him up—but fast.

The current coin shortage in this country is for real. And economists say it's going to get worse before it gets better.

The government is working frantically to relieve the shortage. But meanwhile—

• The New Jersey Turnpike Authority pulled a switch by taking up a collection from the churches, exchanging paper currency for coins dropped in the basket at church services.

• The Pennsylvania Turnpike didn't go to church, but it did go to the restaurants along the turnpike and buy up coin tips the waitresses had received.

• The Mackinac Straits Bridge people in Michigan are rueing the day they set the toll fee at $3.75. That quarter change they have to make so often is a bigger headache every day.

• Vending machines—blamed in part for the coin shortage—are themselves feeling the pinch and more and more frequently are flashing the little green light that says "use exact change."

Any day now a businessman may walk up to a panhandler and say, "Brother, can you spare a dime?"

Hush On K

Radio Free Europe has come up with an interesting sidelight on the political demise of Nikita Khrushchev. In Vienna, Hungarian travelers told of the contrast in Budapest between the reaction to the ouster of Khrushchev and the assassination of President Kennedy.

When news of the President's death reached the city last year, all telephone lines immediately lit up as people discussed the tragedy.

But when the change in Russian leadership was announced, no one dared use the telephone. Talk was restricted to face-to-face conversations.

Washington Comment

By BRUCE BIASSET

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Two factors impel some key Republicans to urge speedy party rebuilding despite the roots in Ohio. cautionary note sounded by others:

1. Concern that failure to move swiftly will allow Sen. Barry Goldwater's forces, led by GOP National Chairman Dean Burch, to fortify the command of party machinery.

2. Awareness that mountainous effort will be required to restore the Republicans' decimated ranks in Congress and hold important GOP governorships in New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Michigan, Wisconsin, Oregon. These are crucial 1966 foundation stones for an effective presidential bid in 1968.

A party insider's comment suggests why No. 1 bulks large in some Republican minds: "Burch and company think they already have it made. They think the moderates won't have any better luck getting together now than they did before the San Francisco convention."

A Republican regular with good credentials among both conservatives and moderates rates quick countermoves essential for those who want to unseat the confirmed Goldwaterites. Says he:

"We have to get something up there quick with a different tag on it, otherwise we'll be into another default situation as we had earlier this year."

In this man's view, this means shunting Burch and his post-San Francisco lieutenants to the sidelines at the earliest hour and installing a chairman capable of sustaining a new, non-Goldwater Republican image. A particular secondary target is John Grenier of Alabama, Burch's top deputy.

The principal figures mentioned for Burch's job all have drawbacks of one sort or another.

Idaho's Gov. Robert Smylie, non-Goldwater campaigner for Goldwater, successful battler for 10 additional GOP seats in his legislature, has two years of his third term still to serve. He could not manage the national committee full time until 1967.

Ohio's respected Republican state chairman, Ray Bliss, is

Clothing Drive Starts Sunday

The 1964 Thanksgiving Clothing Collection for the needy overseas sponsored by the Catholic bishops of the United States under the auspices of Catholic Relief Services, National Catholic Welfare Conference is scheduled in the Diocese of Marquette for the week of Nov. 22.

Collection Centers have been designated by participating parishes and all instructions and materials needed for the collection have been distributed by the campaign director, Msgr. David P. Spelgatti, pastor of St. John the Evangelist Church, Ishpeming.

Now in its 16th year, the Catholic Bishops' Thanksgiving Clothing Collection is being conducted in more than 17,000 churches across the nation, 1300 of these in Upper Michigan.

U.P. Girls Try For Wool Prizes

Contestants from throughout the Upper Peninsula will meet in Marquette this Saturday to compete for awards in the "Make It Yourself With Wool" contest. The contestants will meet at 2 p.m. Saturday in the Michigan State University Extension Center to display and then model their wool garments. The public is welcome.

District director for the program, Mrs. Nels Eskola of South Range, says the contest is open to girls 10 to 21. They make their own garments from wool. This year contestants will be competing for a grand prize — a 14-day European holiday by air and other prizes.

Smith Promoted By Boy Scouts

Hiawathaland Council Executive Board meeting Tuesday in Marquette heard President Burton Boyum, Negauke, announce promotion of Scout Executive Ralph Smith to executive of the Abraham Lincoln Council, Springfield, Ill., effective Jan. 1.

Smith has served the Hiawathaland Council as the scout executive since 1959. At Springfield he will replace Richard L. Thompson, formerly of this council, who will retire Jan. 1.

Boyum expressed the Board's regret at losing Smith's guidance, but stated that the promotion was well earned. Boy membership in the council at the beginning of Smith's tenure was 4,519 and is now just short of the 6,000 mark set as the goal for the end of 1964.

"This almost one-third gain in Scouts in five years is an excellent record and reflects the kind of leadership throughout the council that we have enjoyed during Mr. Smith's work with us," Boyum added.

Executive Board members met with Herman Brandmiller, Chicago, deputy regional Scout executive and selected prospective replacements for Smith. Those selected will be called to Marquette for interview in the near future and it is hoped that a replacement will be available by January. Members of the Executive Committee of the Council include Robert Barron, Escanaba.

Many Pinched As Income Climbs

If you made $5,000 in 1939, you need $12,743 today just to stay even. The family making $13,500 borrows even more today than does the family making $5,000. Both statements are made this month by Changing Times in its probe of the common complaint, "The more we make, the less we seem to have."

The Kiplinger magazine believes that overall most people are probably much better off than they used to be, whether they realize it or not. It points out, though, that while the Consumer Price Index has risen only 15 pct. over the past 15 years, items that are taking more of the prosperous family's income have risen much faster.

Findings show that ladies go to the beauty parlor twice as often as they did 15 years ago. In 10 years the cost of hospital room and board has doubled, and estimates are that it will be up almost another 50 pct. by 1970. Over the same 10-year period, the cost of sending a child to college for one year has risen around 40 to 50 pct. Indications are that there'll be an additional rise of about 5 to 7 pct. per year from now on.

Exploring the subject "Why We Feel Pinched," the Kiplinger editors note, too, that "as a family increases its income, it adds a great deal more each year to its assets, even though it may not always be aware of the improvement."

"Actually, when your income rises, all expenditures don't go up in the same proportion." Those expenditures that tend to go up faster than income include taxes, insurance, clothing, educational expenses, recreation, gifts and contributions, as well as additions to net worth.

"Other items, such as housing, transportation and food, don't go up as fast as income."

Most families are spending more on transportation today than 10 years ago when about 9 per cent of all families had two cars; now it's closer to 16 pct.

Although the rise in taxes and prices helps to explain why a dollar of income doesn't go as far as it used to, most people have actually upgraded their way of living a lot more than they realize. In addition, while they may not admit it openly, most people are tucking away assets to pass on to their heirs.

New Carrier Heads For Sea

NEWPORT NEWS, Va. (AP)—Looking as mighty as the nation she's named for, the aircraft carrier America eased away from her berth and headed for the open water and her first sea trials.

Two tugs pulled her from Pier 8 at the Newport News Shipbuilding & Dry Dock Co. and into the James River. Thousands of persons lined the riverbank as she moved slowly toward Hampton Roads.

As the USS America left this port for the first time a passenger ship that bore that name for 24 years was ready to leave, probably for the last time.

The former America was renamed the SS Australia Tuesday and repainted to Greek colors. Once America's queen of the seas she will carry passengers between Europe and Australia.

Master of the aircraft carrier for her sea trials is Capt. E. D. Edwards of the Virginia Pilot Association. She is manned by a civilian shipyard crew, although her prospective commander, Capt. Lawrence Heyworth, and other key Navy personnel are aboard.

The former SS America was sold by the United States Lines to the Chandris Lines for an undisclosed sum.

Kresge Opens 8 New Stores

DETROIT (AP) — S. S. Kresge Co. at 10 a.m. today opened eight stores simultaneously in the United States and Puerto Rico in a unique merchandising "first."

The new openings, including seven K-mart department stores, boosted Kresge's total K-mart outlets to 88, more than any discount merchant in the world, the firm said.

The other new store is a Kresge variety operation in Puerto Rico.

Kresge President Harry B. Cunningham, in a speech prepared for the opening of a K-mart store in Colorado Springs, Colo., said:

"We believe you are taking part in an historic event in American retailing. We entered the discount department store field a little more than 2½ years ago with one store and the intention of being the largest in the world in three years. We are ahead of schedule in reaching that goal."

Cunningham added: "This eight-store opening is a milestone for the Kresge Co. but it is not a high-water mark. We will continue expanding at the present unprecedented rate of 30 to 35 K-marts a year."

Other K-mart openings were at Troy, Mich.; Charlottesville, Va.; Lexington, Ky.; McKeenport, Pa.; and Flint and Jackson, Mich.

Cunningham said Kresge now has some 40,000 employees serving an estimated 50,000,000 consumers.

WYANDOTTE (AP) — Agreement to sell its steam and electric power generating facilities at its two Wyandotte plants to the Detroit Edison Co. was announced today by Wyandotte Chemicals Corp.

The joint announcement was made by Wyandotte Mayor James DeSana, president Robert Semple of Wyandotte Chemicals and board chairman Walker Cisler of Detroit Edison.

The transaction would involve two power plants and related equipment at the north and south works in the down river community. Detroit Edison plans to assume operation of the plants in early 1965.

Purchase price was not disclosed but the announcement said the agreement included 13 steam turbine-generators, with a total of 57,000 kilowatts.

The statement said Wyandotte Chemicals' electric power requirements will be supplied by Detroit Edison which has immediate plans for construction of new steam generation equipment, which will provide for the expanding process steam needs of the chemical firm.

Mayor De Sana said his city, which now has a power interchange agreement with Wyandotte Chemicals, has negotiated a similar agreement with Detroit Edison.

MIDLAND (AP)—Dow Chemical Co. said today it has purchased more than 1,000 acres of land in Minnesota's Mesabi Iron Ore range to serve as the site for a new plant to manufacture blasting agents.

The site is some 50 miles north of Duluth between Biwabik and Aurora, Minn. Most of the land was purchased from the Lake Mining Co., the firm said. The purchase price was not disclosed.

DETROIT (AP)—The board of directors of Burroughs Corp. Wednesday declared a regular quarterly dividend of 25 cents a share, payable Jan. 20 to stockholders of record at the close of business Dec. 24.

Jail Takes Toll On Jack Ruby

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — A year behind bars has taken a heavy toll on Jack Ruby.

The once well-groomed, well-exercised night club operator now is a sloppy, befuddled man who apparently suffers from delusions of persecution.

He is confined to a blocked-off section of a hallway inside the Dallas County Jail, a stone's throw from where President Kennedy was assassinated last Nov. 22.

Ruby has been in jail since Nov. 24 when he shot Lee Harvey Oswald, the assassin of the President. Since March 14 he has been under the death sentence imposed by a jury which found him guilty of murder with malice.

May Be Free Man

Ruby's lawyers hope to win a reversal of this verdict when they argue before the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals in Austin sometime next spring.

They will contend, among other things, that local conditions made it impossible for Ruby to get a fair trial in Dallas, and that testimony from certain police officers, which tended to show malice on Ruby's part, should have been ruled inadmissible.

A succession of attorneys have joined and left the Ruby defense team since Melvin Belli was dismissed after the trial. At present, Phil Burleson of Dallas and Joe Tonahill of Jasper, Tex., are the attorneys of record in the case, with Sol Danc of Detroit apparently acting in a consultant capacity for the Ruby family.

Tonahill said Ruby might be a free man in a year if the Austin court reverses the case.

Suicide Attempted

"If the appellate court supports us on the issue of inadmissible police testimony," he said, "then the element of malice will be gone from the case. Murder without malice means two to five years, and, considering time off for good behavior, Jack already will have served the minimum time on such a sentence."

Meanwhile, in his constantly guarded jail quarters, wearing white coveralls and sandal-type shoes, Ruby waits. Sheriff Bill Decker maintains strict security measures.

Those allowed to see Ruby say he often appears to lose touch with reality, and raves about how Jews are suffering because he killed Oswald. He has attempted suicide by banging his head against a steel wall, and by sticking his finger into a light socket. He has lost weight, and let his body go soft.

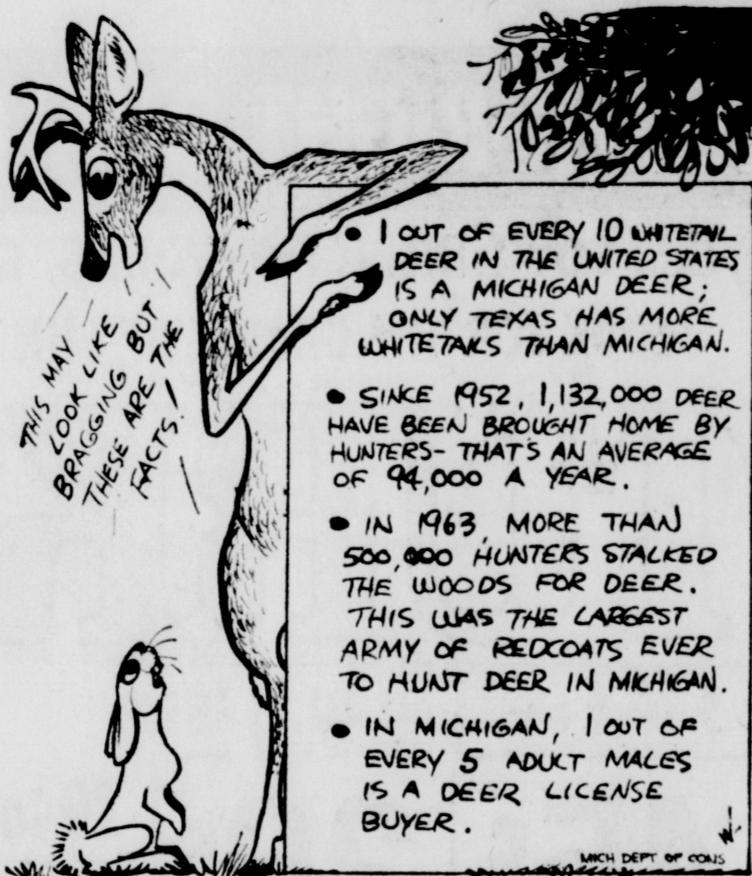

A man who formerly liked to flash a large roll of bills, Ruby is a declared pauper. His family is said to have little money. Voluntary contributions apparently help defray legal and other expenses.

Exemptions Eat Up Local Taxes

LANSING (AP) — Property tax exemptions are eating away at local tax bases, city and county officials told a legislative committee Wednesday.

Exemptions granted by the state and paid for by local governments in decreased revenue present serious problems for cities, counties and school districts, they told the committee, headed by Rep. Harry DeMaso, R-Battle Creek, and have brought taxation on the remaining property owners to the saturation point.

The feelings expressed in the public hearing here Wednesday also were presented to the committee in a hearing in Detroit Tuesday, DeMaso said.

Detroit Heavy Loser

"The consensus seems to be that if the state grants any additional exemptions, it should reimburse local governments on a permanent basis," he said.

Exemptions now range from churches to tools, dies, jigs and fixtures—the latter granted by the 1964 legislature to keep Chrysler Corp. from expanding outside the state.

Detroit alone said it would lose $4.5 million in taxes under the exemption.

Battle Creek Mayor Millard Vandervoort described exemptions as "a creeping paralysis."

No one has yet determined the exact extent of property tax

Citations Given To Newspapers

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Twenty-nine newspapers and broadcast stations were honored Nov. 18 by the Associated Press Managing Editors Association for outstanding contributions to port.

Award of citations to the 25 newspapers and four radio-television members of the news cooperative was announced at the annual APME convention here.

Each of the recipients made an important contribution in the coverage of a fast-breaking news event in behalf of all members during the past year.

In some cases they provided stories and newsphotos for other AP members before they could make use of the material themselves.

Five of the awards stemmed from coverage of the disastrous Alaska earthquake of March 27. Other awards were related to coverage of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, racial disorders and the disappearance of three civil rights workers, tornadoes which struck Missouri, Kansas and Texas, and other news events.

The citations were signed by Sam Ragan, APME president and executive editor of the Raleigh (N.C.) News & Observer and Times; and Charles T. Alexander Jr., chairman of the APME Member Citations Committee and managing editor of the News & Journal, Wilmington, Del.

Recipients were:

Taxes Spurt In Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES (AP) — When Dr. Frankenstein's monster grew too hard to live with, a torchlight parade of peasants in Transylvania marched up to the doctor's door and declared: "This darn thing has gone too far."

Something along this line seems to be shaping up in Los Angeles. It's beginning to look like an anti-monster-marching time. The monster: property taxes. And guess who's on the side of the marchers? The tax assessor.

Thousands of angry homeowners, mad over their tax bills, are due to arrive by bus and car at the civic center today at 9:30 a.m. — which, fortunately, is too early for torches.

The question is: Where is Dr. Frankenstein?

Don't look for him in the office of County Assessor Philip E. Watson.

Because Watson, 39, a boat-rocking, hard-nosed tax man, hates taxes — and what he terms the present unfair tax structure — as much as any of the apoplectic property owners.

Watson says he is willing to go out on the street himself to pass petitions to get a state constitutional amendment on the next ballot that would put a lid on the rise of property taxes.

"We are already in the danger zone of excessive taxation," he told a news conference Monday, "during the past 10 years, property taxes have tripled."

There is no Dr. Frankenstein, according to Watson's view, because no one person created the present tax system; like Topsy, it just "grow'd."

But, he hopes, the taxpayers' revolt may stimulate backing for his proposal for a ceiling on property taxes.

Watson wants the state legislature to make the property-tax ceiling two per cent of fair market value. If it doesn't, then out come the petitions, he vows.

At present Los Angeles County homes are assessed at 25 per cent of their value; a 2 per cent ceiling would make the tax a maximum of $8 per $100 of assessed valuation.

In Los Angeles the combined city-county-school rate is now $9.183 per $100.

Resource Study Meeting Is Set

At least 25 discussion leaders participating in the Schoolcraft committee for developing human resources will attend a second training meeting at 7:30 p.m., Dec. 1 in the courthouse.

The Cooperative extension service is in charge. Observing that education can help overcome unemployment, it points out:

"People are Michigan's most important resource. Yet, we know less about human resources than almost any other kind."

"One thing we do know: there are not enough jobs in Michigan, let alone the country, for all who need them."

"Part of the unemployment problem is 'structural.' It is caused by changes in the world in which we live, such as automation, new technology and changing demands of the American consumer. This is more serious than the kind of unemployment that occurs when a worker voluntarily quits his job or when new workers are looking for jobs."

"Education is not a cure-all. But in order for people to reduce unemployment and increase the over-all standard of living, the educational systems must meet certain demands."

"Those in the work force must be broadly educated as citizens and highly trained as workers. An adequate supply of professional and technical people must be trained to meet growing needs. Vocational education must be geared to a changing society. And education must be made a continuing life process," it notes.

MORE ASSETS THAN DEBTS—The public, taken as a whole, is financially sound, according to the National Consumer Finance Assn. A recent estimate shows a 21.5 to 1 asset-to-debt ratio, a very healthy situation. Subtracting current and fixed liabilities, the net worth of American consumers is estimated at $1,791 billion. Current assets are defined as cash deposits, securities and insurance and pension reserves. Durable goods include autos, furniture and other items which can be turned into cash.

Announcement of the sale of Marble Arms Division to a four-man combine of local investors Wednesday brought increased speculation to Gladstone over the fate of its sister Marble Electric plant.

Both units were owned by Bell & Gossett Corp. of Morton Grove, Ill., a division of International Telephone & Telegraph.

Negotiations for purchase of Marble Electric have been continuing for months between ITT-Bell & Gossett and major producers of electrical products.

Efforts to keep the plant in Gladstone have played a major part in sales attempts, being a condition of sale ITT spokesmen have said.

Meanwhile, the new owners of Marble Arms — Clarence Goodman, Reuben Sjoquist, Atty. Clair J. Hoehn and William Clark — offered no comment on the future of the plant except that it would remain in Gladstone.

"Any statement now would be premature," said Clark, new treasurer of the corporation, who comes to Gladstone from a sporting goods manufacturer in Minnesota. Two brothers, Olaf Carlson of Stonington and Ewald Kull of Huron, Ohio, and three sisters, Mrs. Semer Thorsen and Mrs. Fritz Bjurman, both of Stonington, and Mrs. Helmer Stromquist of Days River, also survive.

The body was taken to the Kelley Funeral Home.

PART OF FUNERAL EXPENSE

ALBUQUERQUE (AP) — An unusual request — for a party after his funeral — was set forth in the will of Glenn M. Larsen, who died in a hospital here.

Larsen stipulated that one per cent of his distributable estate should be used for a party after his funeral. The item was to be considered part of the funeral expense, the will specified.

The estate was valued at approximately $30,000 in personal property and $6,000 in real estate.

Upper Midwest Small Towns To Wither On Vine

The ghost town trend in small communities of the Upper Midwest is going to be active in the next decade.

Ask City Living

"These geographic shifts in population reflect a demand for city living in pleasant surroundings, withdrawal of surplus labor from farming, growth of new industries and services, and development of new resources," says the study report. "They have been accompanied by a general rise in income."

Quest for economic betterment is likely to speed the trend toward city living, say the researchers.

A major factor in the future economic development of the region is a quality labor, management and business venture force which wants to live in the Upper Midwest. The amenity of the places in which people live is an important long-run economic asset.

The report says that even the small towns which have a population increase within the town are likely to experience a net population loss within their trade areas. This will result from population losses in the neighboring hamlets and on the surrounding farms which exceed the gain in the trade center itself. This trend will be found most in the western farming states of the region.

Forecasts Changes

The study forecasts the following Upper Peninsula urban area changes in population in 1960-75:

Menominee, slow growth or decline, 10% or less.

Escanaba-Gladstone, moderate growth, 11 to 25%.

Iron Mountain-Kingsford, slow growth or decline, 10% or less.

Iron River-Stambaugh, same. Ironwood-Bessemer, same. Manistique, same. Newberry, same. Houghton-Hancock and Calumet, same.

Marquette, moderate growth, 11-25%.

Negaunee-Ishpeming, moderate, 11-25%.

Munising, moderate.

Sault Ste. Marie, moderate.

St. Ignace, fast growth, 26-31%.

The study predicts that urban regions will be added by 1975 where they do not exist today in:

Northern Menominee County. The Stonington Peninsula and north to the north Delta line.

Northern Baraga County.

Northern Ontonagon County.

Northeastern Dickinson County.

Seven Accused Of Setting Fires On Halloween

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Felony charges following a series of Halloween night fires in suburban Walker brought seven young men into Municipal Court here Wednesday.

All demanded examination before Judge Louis E. Simhauser and were released on bonds of $500 each pending a hearing Dec. 1 on charges of arson.

They are: Allen Hoogewind, 21; Leonard Postema, 19; Paul Smith, 19; Wayne Bazuin, 20; Duane Binney, 28; Franklin J. VanMaldegen and Ronald L. Steensma, 20.

State police charged the respondents with taking part in burning a vacant house, three barns, a truck garage and a fruit stand.

The nation of Israel came into existence on May 14, 1948.

TWENTY YEARS AFLOAT—While in the hospital suffering from serious injuries in 1944, Jacinto Baeza promised his patron saint that if he recovered, he would spend the next 20 years at sea. He kept his promise. He will soon leave his leaky rowboat to set foot once again on land. He spent his 20 years in the harbor at Alicante, Spain.

Slowdown Seen For Next Year

ANN ARBOR (AP) — The growth rate of the American economy will slow down next year, the annual Michigan Econometric Forecast predicted today.

The Gross National Product will rise 4 per cent in 1965, compared to 7 per cent this year, Prof. Daniel Suits, director of the University of Michigan Seminar in Quantitative Economics, told the opening session of the 12th annual Conference on the Economic Outlook.

However, the predicted 652 billion GNP will result in record employment and output next year, he said. Suits estimated employment will reach 71.5 million with unemployment at 7 million.

Consumption expenditures will rise to $418.5 billion, an increase of $18.2 billion over this year, Suits said. More than half the gain will come in spending for services, particularly in housing and household operations.

Nondurable goods will take up most of the remainder of the increase. Nearly $5 billion more is expected to be spent on food and an additional $2.1 billion on clothing and shoes.

Auto Boom Declines

Auto spending is expected to decline about $1 billion next year, the only major sector of the economy to show a decline. Suits predicted auto makers will sell 7.5 million new cars, a decline. Suits predicted auto makers will sell 7.5 million new cars, a decline of as many as 500,000 from this year. He said the decline would occur because of a rapid buildup of new cars in recent years.

Suits also noted a possible $300 million increase in the United States foreign trade balance at $6.4 billion. Government purchasing of goods and services will rise about $4 billion, he added.

The U-M economist said last spring's $11 billion tax cut stimulated the 7 per cent growth of the GNP. This stimulus, he said, will have dissipated next year.

The Michigan Econometric Forecast, financed by the National Science Foundation, is

They said Jennings lives at Dyer, Ind., but commutes three days a week to his post here. The victim's car reportedly collided with the rear of a truck stopped at a railroad crossing.

Escanaba High School this week granted Preble a release on its football contract for the 1965 season. Preble requested the release because of its recent consolidation with the Green Bay public school system, which means automatic membership in the Fox River Valley Conference. Escanaba played at Preble this fall and scored a 21-13 victory over the Hornets in the first athletic meeting between the schools.

Some progress is being made in the difficult schedule problem facing the proposed new athletic conference involving Escanaba, Holy Name, Iron Mountain, Menominee, Stephenson and Kingsford. It appears that the Escanaba-Holy Name football game, marking the first meeting between the two city schools, will come in the final game on the 1965 schedule.

There's only one direction this year's Bessemer High School basketball team can go, after a winless nightmare last season.

Coach John Bonk, in his second year at the Speed Boy helm, has six lettermen including three regulars back in action.

Last year's 0-16 record was the first time in the history of the school that the Speed Boys failed to win a game.

Coach Harold Palmer of Gogebic Community College in Ironwood has quite a crew of former area athletes on his squad this season. Back from last year's team are sophomores Pete Burns and Larry Jarvela. Newcomers include Cliff Decker, Jim Talaska and Craig Farrell of Ironwood, Martin Robertson and Alan Maki of White Pine, Bob Manning of Trout Creek and Jack Manninen of Bessemer. Manning scored 486 points and was an All-U.P. first team selection in Class D last year.

Pickford, quarterfinalist in the state Class D tournament last year, has two regulars returning to the fold this season in Roger Hewer, 5-10 senior guard, and Charles Bennin, a 5-9 junior forward. Bennin made the All-U.P. second team last season. Pickford opens the season Friday night at Rudyard.

There are five new basketball coaches among the high schools in the Escanaba area this season. Making their debuts are Bill McGovern at Rapid River, Seb Rubick at Nahma, Tom Legua at Powers-Spalding, Julian Vandecaveye at Perkins and Jack Arduin at Newberry. The veterans back at their posts this year at Harold Johnson at Escanaba, John Butrymowicz at Holy Name, Bill Wood at Gladstone, Carlton Roels at Bark River-Harris, Don Hill at Hermansville, Steve Ellis at Trenary, Guss Lord at Stephenson, Roman Gill at Rock, David Pelletier at Garden, Rudie Brandstrom at Manistique, Jim Depew at Eben, Norman Jahn at Cooks, Bob Kuntze at Carney and Rod Carlson at Engadine.

Coach John MacInnes has five Michigan athletes on his 25 man hockey varsity squad at Michigan Tech this season. The Michigan men are Mike Gorman of Houghton, Bruce Riutta of Hancock, Roy Heino of Port Huron, Joe Galetto of Laurium and Norm Banfield of Dollar Bay. The Huskies open the season with a home stand this weekend against Waterloo Lutheran University of Ontario.

Ishpeming, an early Great Lakes Conference foe of Escanaba, will have only four 6-footers on its squad this season as Coach Duane Phillips faces a rebuilding year. Tallest player is senior Mike Tunteri at 6-1. Top veteran on the team is Doug Pertunen, 5-8 senior who pumped in an impressive 276 points in the regular season last year.

Coach Jim Daniels of Wakefield also faces a rebuilding year after guiding his Cardinals to the Michigan Wisconsin Conference championship, the Upper Peninsula Class C crown and into the state tournament quarterfinals last year. Daniels has only four returning lettermen, including one regular in Jim Franck, 6 foot 5 inch center.

With Nahma's Pat Groleau turning in some "fantastic rebounding" the Soo Tech Hornets made it two straight victories this season by swamping Laurentian University of Sudbury, 82-32. Soo Tech raced to a 19-0 lead as the 6 foot 5 inch freshman swept the boards and Coach Jack Brighton called on his reserves for heavy duty in the second half of the contest. Groleau contributed four field goals to the scoring column.

Baltimore Star Most Valuable Player In AL

BALTIMORE (AP) — Brooks Robinson, who was told as a youth he had a questionable future in baseball, is the American League's Most Valuable Player for 1964.

"This is the most wonderful thing that ever happened to me," Robinson said Wednesday night after his landslide victory was announced.

The Baltimore third baseman, whose heroes almost carried the Orioles to a pennant, drew 269 of a possible 280 points in the voting by a special 20-man committee of the Baseball Writers Association of America.

The only player named on all ballots, Robinson drew 18 first place votes. The other two went to Mickey Mantle, who sparked the New York Yankees' late drive to another pennant. Mantle finished with 171 points. A first-place vote was worth 14 points, with 9 for second, 8 for third, etc.

Elston Howard of the Yanks, last year's winner, finished third with 124 points. Rookie batting champ Tony Oliva of Minnesota was fourth with 99, followed by pitcher Dean Chance of Los Angeles, the Cy Young award winner, with 97.

Robinson, 27, topped American League third basemen in fielding for the fifth straight year. And to go with his spectacular glove work, he led the league with 118 runs batted in, finished second in hitting with a .317 mark, and slugged 28 home runs.

BOSTON (AP) — Olympic high-jumper John Thomas is reported in excellent condition after undergoing a hernia operation Wednesday at Massachusetts Memorial Hospital.

Wolverines Favored To Beat Ohio State

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Coach Woody Hayes isn't broadcasting his strategy for the all-important gridiron clash with the University of Michigan here Saturday, but a couple of things are becoming mighty obvious.

First, Woody has to find ways of putting some punch in balanced, if not spectacular, offense and thus take some of the pressure off a pretty good and alert defensive unit.

Next, he'll have to push the same defensive unit to new heights if it has any chance at all of stopping Michigan's All-America quarterback candidate Bob Timberlake and his co-workers.

The big Buckeye horseshoe stadium — with more than 84,000 in the stands — will find out how well Woody succeeds. It has been the scene of some memorial clashes in the past, but few could match this week's collision with the Big Ten title and a Rose Bowl bid riding on the outcome.

The Bucks will be the underdogs. Statistics show the Wolverines' favored position but, traditionally, statistics in this annual clash between the ancient rivals have never been vital. Both teams are inclined to play over their heads. In the past both have reversed pre-game predictions.

Ohio State's task of getting ready for the game seems the tougher one. Columbus football observers see Michigan at its peak for the game. Ohio State bounced back from the humiliating Penn State rout with an unimpressive 10-0 victory over Northwestern last Saturday.

Psychologically, that Penn State drubbing may still hurt. How deeply is a task for Woody and his staff this week.

The victory bell after the Northwestern game had not stopped ringing when Woody made one big decision for the offense — to start Halfback Leon Lindsey against Michigan instead of Tom Barrington. The latter, handicapped by injuries, has had to be relieved early and often. Now, Woody says, Barrington has a neck injury and may not see much action.

Fullback Will Sander's shoulder was twisted in the Northwestern game and he may not see much service, leaving it up to third-string fullback Paul Hudson to take up the chore.

Second-string fullback John McCoy is out for the season with a knee injury.

Athletics Ink Olympic Cager

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Raymond Suarez, a catcher at Florida State University and a member of the U.S. Olympic baseball team, has signed a bonus contract with the Kansas City Athletics.

Suarez, 21, of Tampa, batted .375 for FSU in his junior year and was named to the NCAA all-star first team. He batted .312 on the Olympic squad.

Suarez will report to the A's minor league base at Daytona Beach, Fla., next spring.

New Coach Gets Third Victory

DETROIT (AP) — Lanky Dave DeBusschere has been in charge of the Detroit Pistons for four games now and his National Basketball Association club has won three of those contests.

DeBusschere, who became playing coach last week, replacing Charley Wolf, flipped in 25 points Wednesday night as his hepped-up team trounced the Philadelphia 76ers 124-111.

The victory gave Detroit 5-10 record and pushed the club into fourth place in the NBA Western Division. Idle San Francisco slipped from fourth to fifth.

DeBusschere, Ray Scott, Don Kojis and Rod Thorn provided the heavy scoring power for the Pistons. In addition to DeBusschere's 25 points, Scott got 29 to take game honors, Kojis collected 17 and Thorn got 19. Hal

The others in the backfield, Quarterback Don Unverferth and Halfback Bo Rein, seem in good shape. They'll be backed up by Nick Yonclas, Barrington, if available at all, and Tyrone Barnett.

Other Bucks have some bumps and bruises, but none is serious.

Hayes' big problem remains the offense. Michigan has been used to the block-busting type of fullback that has been the Bucks' chief offensive weapon and ground-gainer. This year Ohio State has had some success with Don Unverferth's passing along with only a fair running game, and most observers expect Woody to add the needed punch via the airways.

But nobody can outguess Woody when it comes to preparing for the Michigan finale. No doubt he'll have a few surprises, both in the air and on the ground.

Giving Michigan a lot of trouble on the defense will be linebacker Ike Kelley who led the Bucks in contacts with Northwestern ball carriers Saturday with 13, followed by middle guard Bill Ridder with 12, end Tom Kiehfuss with 11 and linebacker Tom Bugel with eight.

Michigan has been more impressive than Ohio State in meeting three common Big Ten opponents, Illinois, Iowa and Northwestern — with the Wolverines' margin of victory 64 points compared with Ohio State's 37.

Woodys' teams have won nine of his 13 meetings with the Wolverines, including the last four.

Only once before in the long series with Michigan has Ohio State managed to string together as many as four victories in a row. These were Francis Schmidt's teams of 1934-35-36-37 which shut out the Michigan rivals in all four games.

Spartans Get Final Chance

EAST LANSING (AP) — This will be last chance Saturday for the Michigan State Spartans — last chance for a winning season and a first division finish in the Big Ten.

Coach Duffy Daugherty has ended only two seasons on the losing side in 10 years, in 1954 and 1958. He needs to beat Illinois at Champaign to end up 5-4 over-all and 4-2 in the conference this year.

State was shaken physically and psychologically after the 347 stomping by top-ranked Notre Dame. MSU also is going against a modern jinx: they've been defeated three times in a row starting in 1956 playing Illinois at Champaign.

Those looking for omens could find hope in the total yards rushing compiled by Dick Gordon, who now has 711 yards. It also is Daugherty's 11th season as head coach.

Gordon will be dueling for rushing honors against Illinois fullback Jim Grabowski who achieved a Big Ten record of 239 yards against Wisconsin.

State will try for a one-two punch, combining the rushing game with the passing of quarterback Steve Judy.

The teams clashed in the regular season finale last fall with the Big Ten title and Rose Bowl bid at stake. Illinois grabbed all the honors with a 13-0 victory on a touchdown run by Grabowski, an extra point and two field goals.

But Wednesday night, the 29-year-old, 250-pound line-smasher stood before newsmen and said he had told Saban and his teammates earlier he was "true."

He was placed on the waiver list two days ago because, Coach Lou Saban said, Gilchrist's behavior had been injurious to the morale of the Bills. He has been in trouble with Buffalo police, missed some practice sessions and reportedly violated curfew rules.

New Fishing Fees Studied

By BOB VOGES

LANSING (AP)—A new scale of fishing license fees, abolishment of bounties, stronger powers over the southern Michigan deer herd and limited quail shooting are among the legislative proposals for next year approved by the State Conservation Commission.

Items such as these that directly affect the hunter and fisherman in the field always generate the most interest and cause the most argument in the legislature.

Bounties Up Again

Once again next year, the commission will try to junk the bounty payments on predators that cost the state nearly a quarter of a million dollars a year. The bulk of the money is paid out on foxes although coyotes and bobcats also are bountied.

The repealer nearly scraped through the last legislative session before being blocked at the last moment. This was although most conservation experts oppose the bounty system and despite appeals for bounty repeal by Gov. George Romney and his special conservation study group.

The fishing license fee revisions to be proposed to the legislature by commission include:

Increasing the annual resident fee from $2 to $3 along with abolition of the trout stamp.

Providing for a temporary five-day license for $2 as well as the 15-day temporary license for $4. Such temporary licenses would be valid for an individual or man and wife and for both residents and nonresidents.

Requiring all persons over 17 to have a license to fish any public waters in the state, including the Great Lakes.

Traditionally, wives have

Wetter Cycle Will Come Back

EAST LANSING (AP)—Michigan's dry spell "should swing around the other way some day and people will be complaining about too much water," says the director of Michigan State University's Institute of Water Research.

"It's just part of these long-range weather cycles that occur," says Laurence L. Quill. "It will just take time for an adequate water supply to be built up."

He wouldn't venture to say, though, when the drought might end.

He also pointed out that greater use of water by the growing population means much more rain and snowfall is needed to make up for the dry spell.

In the short-term outlook, A. H. Eichmeier, state climatologist, predicted a 30-day wet spell through Dec. 15 for Michigan. He said precipitation for the 30-day period should be an inch above the normal fall of about 5 inches of rain and snow.

That won't be enough, he said, to make a dent in the dry spell which, over the last four years and 10 months, has deprived the state of one entire year's normal supply of moisture—about 34 inches.

"It's going to take at least two wet years to get back to normal for our ground level water and the Great Lakes," Eichmeier said.

Republic Home For Aged Faces Threat Of Closing

By KENNETH LOWE
REPUBLIC — The Sarepta Rest Home, believed to be the oldest facility of its kind in the Upper Peninsula, may soon be forced out of existence, according to Ben Mykkonen, administrator.

Mykkonen said failure to comply with regulations imposed by the State Department of Health would result in closing the institution.

Founded in 1934, by the Rev. K. V. Mykkonen, father of the present administrator, the Sarepta Rest Home currently houses 55 elderly persons. It actually consists of two units, a nursing home with 37 patients and a boarding home with 18 guests.

Prior to 1934, all of the home for elderly persons in the Upper Peninsula were county-operated facilities, Mykkonen said.

The State Health Department, Mykkonen said, has advised him that the number of patients at Sarepta must be reduced by 16 by removing eight from the nursing home and eight from the boarding home.

The department set a deadline of last Friday for reducing the number of patients. Mykkonen refused to do this.

Can't Oust Them

"We cannot force these people to the streets nor can we possibly find any person who will care for them, nor any place to accept them, and we cannot bear to see them evicted from their home," Mykkonen told the department.

He said he would not bear the responsibility for selecting the 16 to be evicted and challenged the department to undertake that task. Mykkonen also said the institution could not operate in the black if its patient load were reduced by 16.

Instead, Mykkonen has advised the department that "under the existing threats . . . all activity of the Sarepta Rest Home will cease on Dec. 1, 1964." Since notifying the state on Oct. 19 of his decision to close the home in lieu of complying with conditions set forth by the department, Mykkonen said he received a letter from the department in which it was stated:

"Basically, we have no complaints on the care you gave your patients. However, the structural deficiencies in your home have given you your problems. You recognized these and we gave you time to get a new facility built. Since you were not able to surmount the financial difficulties encountered in building a new home, the only alternative was for you to reduce your patient load to conform to the rules and regulations . . ."

Licensing 7 Years

The State Health Department took over the licensing of private rest homes from the State Welfare Department about seven years ago and drew up a set of rules that would take effect over a period of several years. Thus, until 1962, the law required 50 square feet per bed, and the Sarepta Rest Home was qualified to house 55 patients. Under a new regulation raising the minimum square footage to 60 per bed, Sarepta's maximum patient load was reduced to 39.

"In other words," Mykkonen said, "a room with 100 square feet cannot be used to house two people any longer. We must take one person out."

Mykkonen listed several other standards of the Health Department that the Sarepta home fails to meet:

- Washing facilities. Wash basins have separate spouts for hot and cold water, and regulations require a blender to provide tempered water.
- Ceiling heights on the second floor of the boarding home don't meet requirements because they are not a full eight feet high in one room.

• Traffic to the kitchen in the nursing home is not entirely by means of hallways. In another case, traffic to a bathroom must move through a bedroom.

There is no room set aside for the critically ill. "We once had a special room for the critically ill, but we discontinued it," Mykkonen said. "The patients disliked it. It became known as 'the death room' and none of the patients wanted to be transferred there."

What of Patients?

Mykkonen is concerned about what will happen to the patients when the Sarepta home is closed. They can't be transferred to private hospitals in the area because these do not have adequate facilities for caring for senile patients and already are overcrowded. They can't be sent to their families because many of them have no families and others find it difficult to live with relatives.

Nor can they be transferred to the Marquette County Citizens Home. The citizens home has no nursing care facilities, which would rule out the 37 persons now housed in Sarepta's nursing home. Those in the boarding home also would be ineligible for admission to the citizens home, which can only accept guests who are not receiving state old age assistance or other state or federal aid.

There are only two other private rest homes in Marquette County—one in Palmer, the other in Marquette. Like the Sarepta Rest Home, both of these are filled to capacity and are turning down applicants because they do not have room for them. The Palmer Nursing Home has a capacity of 69 and the Orchard Rest Home in Marquette 30.

"A lot of rest homes in Michigan are in the same situation we are," Mykkonen said.

Solution Suggested

Mykkonen thinks the solution to the problem lies in a building program undertaken by private parties, "but right now there is absolutely no private rest home building program in Marquette County." He has tried financing a building program but says money for this is not available. Mykkonen estimates it would cost about $300,000 for a 50-bed unit for the structure alone. Equipment would be in addition to this amount.

"We can't hope to meet the state regulations w i t h old buildings and we can't erect a new building because we can't get financing."

The Sarepta Rest Home has 26 employees, and except for the Republic Mine, is the biggest employer in Republic, Mykkonen said.

Mykkonen's father opened the boarding home in 1934 in an old residence. The nursing home was opened in a former general store in 1945. The younger Mykkonen took over administration of the institution in 1950 when his father retired from the ministry and moved to Sanford, Fla., where he now operates a facility that also is known as the Sarepta Rest Home.

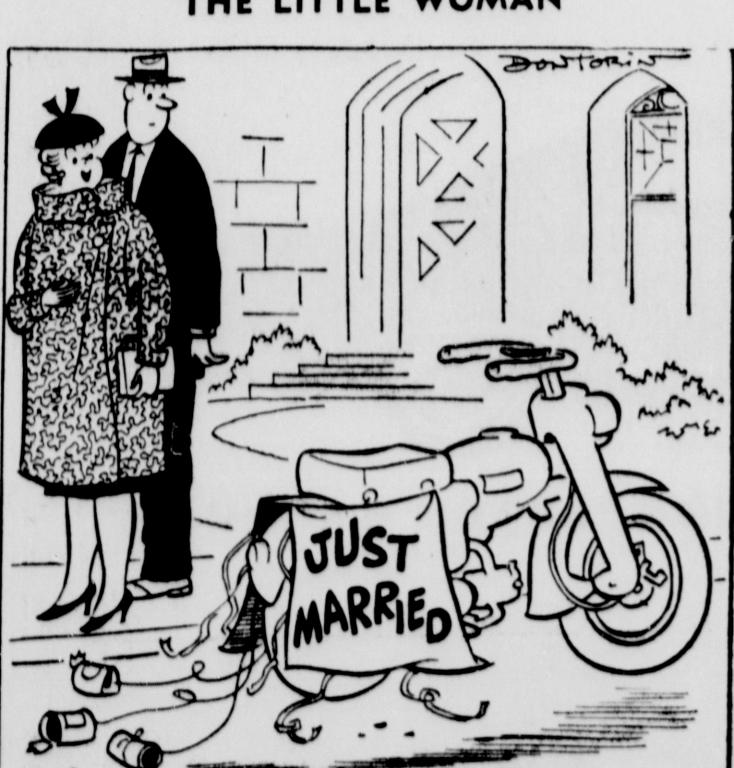

Sarepta is a Biblical term which means "a place where God takes care of His people in a miraculous way."

Most of the patients at the rest home here are from Marquette County.

Romney Urges GOP Rebuilding

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP) — Michigan Gov. George Romney said Wednesday Republican leaders should hold a national conference to map out a program with a broad appeal to the American public.

In a news conference and an address to a County Supervisors Association meeting here, Romney said the Republican party must be rebuilt "around principles and programs, rather than around personalities and Candidates."

If an industrial organization or business is ailing," the governor said, "it first looks at its product or service. It can sell only after determining what its product is to be."

He said that sometime before the next congressional election the party must be rebuilt "around principles and candidates, and it's impossible to talk things through in a proper and objective manner," Romney said.

He expressed hope that Republicans will "talk things through" before the 1966 Congressional elections.

He said an initial step toward uniting party leadership will be the forthcoming Republican governors conference at which the GOP can "take a look at its product."

"It is obvious we've got to unity, and it is obvious we need a better product to offer the American people," Romney said. He added that the governors should not decide whether GOP National Chairman Dean Burch should be removed from his party post.

"It is obvious we've got to unity, and it is obvious we need a better product to offer the American people," Romney said. He added that the governors should not decide whether GOP National Chairman Dean Burch should be removed from his party post.

WIDE WESTERN STREETS

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP)—There is a "Horse Sense" explanation for the wide streets in Colorado Springs. The chief engineer who laid out the town in pioneer days wanted lots of room for turning a double span of horses hauling huge freight wagons.

— Michigan Gov. George Romney said Wednesday Republican leaders should hold a national conference to map out a program with a broad appeal to the American public.

In a news conference and an address to a County Supervisors Association meeting here, Romney said the Republican party must be rebuilt "around principles and programs, rather than around personalities and Candidates."

If an industrial organization or business is ailing," the governor said, "it first looks at its product or service. It can sell only after determining what its product is to be."

He said that sometime before the next congressional election the party must be rebuilt "around principles and candidates, and it's impossible to talk things through in a proper and objective manner," Romney said.

He expressed hope that Republicans will "talk things through" before the 1966 Congressional elections.

He said an initial step toward uniting party leadership will be the forthcoming Republican governors conference at which the GOP can "take a look at its product."

"It is obvious we've got to unity, and it is obvious we need a better product to offer the American people," Romney said. He added that the governors should not decide whether GOP National Chairman Dean Burch should be removed from his party post.

Ten Pay $423 For Killing Elk

PORLTAND (AP) — Ten Portland hunters paid a total of $423 in Justice Court fines and costs Wednesday night for killing and dressing out an 800-pound bull elk.

Justice Hervey Dakke believes it is the first time anyone has been prosecuted in Michigan for slaying an elk which is a protected animal in the state.

R.A. Thompson, regional supervisor of the State Conservation Department from Lansing, believed the animal shot late Sunday in a wheat field just north of here was the same one spotted wandering about the Grand Rapids area some two weeks ago. It would be about 200 miles south of the normal range of the Michigan herd near Gaylord.

A special restricted season opens on elk next month as part of a herd management policy.

Conservation officers were tipped Monday that an elk had been downed near Portland. Area residents described a car seen in the area and it was traced to one man who implicated others, Thompson said.

Officers found buried entrails, hide and head and recovered about 80 pounds of meat which was turned over to a state institution.

Pleading guilty to molesting an elk and charged $32.30 each in fines and costs were: William L. Patrick, Jerry J. Patrick, Joseph B. Bozung, Gary Chartland, Richard J. Pung and David J. Smith.

Cited for possession of elk and charged $57.30 each were Donald J. Thelan, Gary Gross, Leon L. Pung and Joseph A. Pung.

NMU Pioneering In Training Of U.P. Dropouts

Northern Michigan University has named an advisory committee to review its new attack on school dropouts, which will operate in Baraga, Schoolcraft and Mackinac counties.

Ivan Ryan directs the experimental and demonstration project for the University's Public Services Division under federal sponsorship. Robert Liberty and Roger LaBonte are coordinators.

The project set out to offer three counties of the Upper Peninsula the resources of the university in an experiment with ways of solving unemployment among rural high school dropouts, ages 17 to 25.

The plan will be tried in a training period of 15 months to demonstrate:

1. That service can be provided to every person approached for screening as candidates for an on-campus residential training program.

2. That rural opinion leaders can be recruited to serve with small community organization representatives as volunteer aides in finding candidates for training and following up on job placement.

3. That a university-based training group is a suitable teaching instrument for remedial literacy teaching, city orientation and job preparation of rural persons not qualified for direct referral to jobs or to regular training.

Rural Need

4. That medical, optical and dental problems delaying full use of job potential by rural dropouts can be identified and remedied by the resources of existing agencies.

5. That effective on-the-job placement and supervision can be aided in isolated rural areas by a university-paid specialist skilled in community action.

6. That effective preparation for possible personal migration to jobs in cities can be achieved by members of the training program.

7. That remedial and vocational education programs, including exposure to university-campus cultural opportunities, provide an effective tool in solving the problems of rural poverty.

The advisory group members include:

Gogebic County Juvenile Officer Joseph Bria, Bessemer; Rev. Louis Cappo, Ramsay;
